Principal's Message to the Team

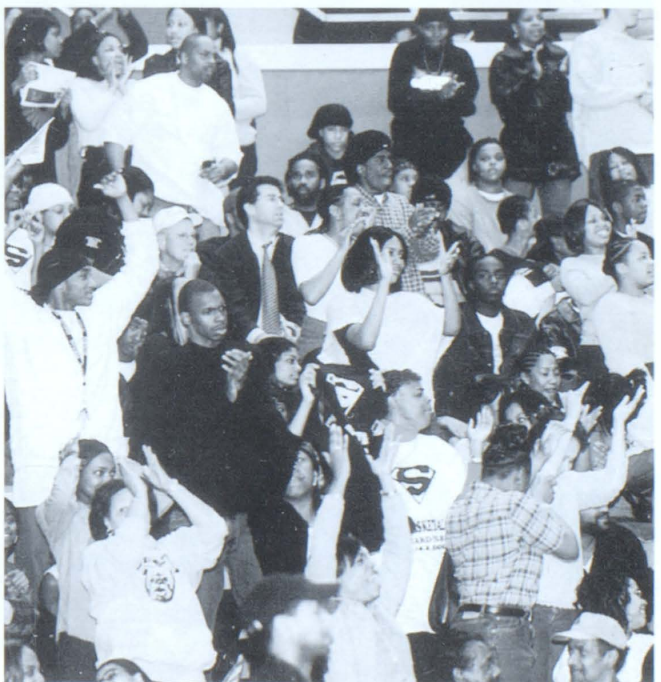

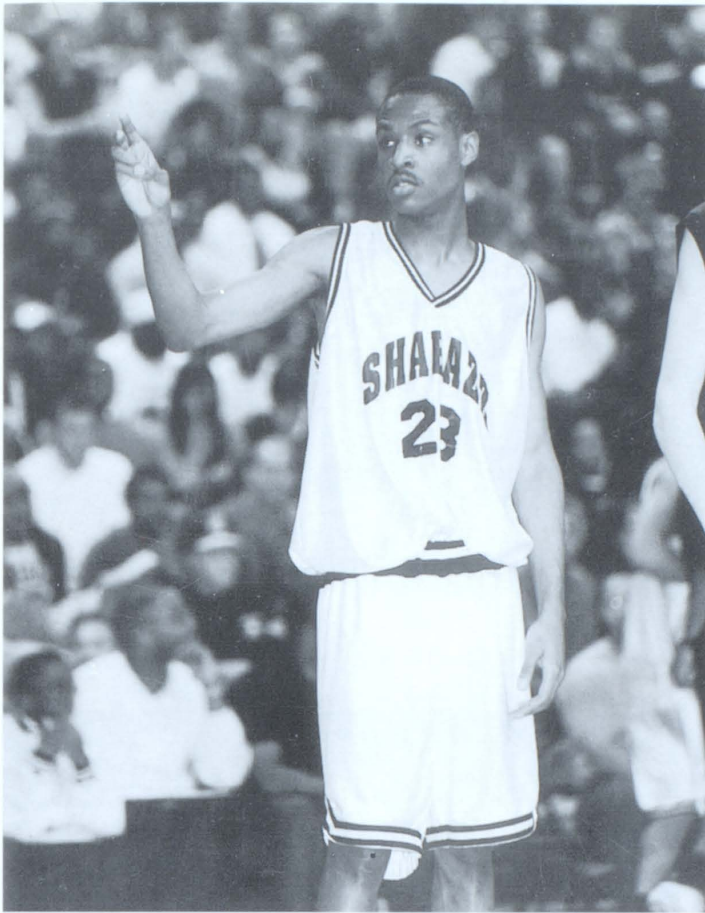

It has been said that athletics (sports) develop character in the individual participating. I witnessed through our team the fact that the character was already there and was infinitely magnified in each of our players. To our Bulldog Basketball team I say you reached heights that must be termed unimaginable, yet to your credit you went for it undaunted, and willing to put everything on the line for pride, dignity, and respect for self. I applaud you for presenting the true spirit in which high school athletics is played and being the kind of example that we truly appreciate.

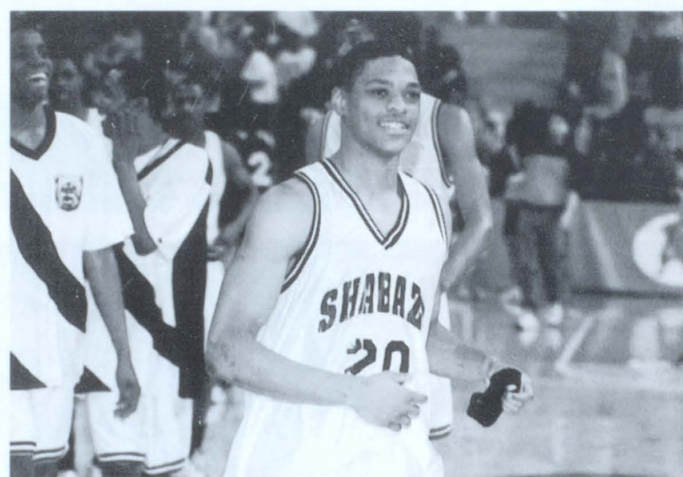

To the coaches, I say simply, "job well done". You truly captured through your team the essence of competition and sportsmanship.

To the fans, thank you for your support this year, and please know that you share in all that the team accomplished. Continue to be there for our student athletes, your presence lets each of them know that you care.

SENIOR CLASS ADVISORS

Ms. Lavonne Furlow – Mrs. Mary Clowney

We, the class of 2001 wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to our wonderful advisors Ms. Furlow and Mrs. Clowney. You have been instrumental in making this year smooth, exciting, and rewarding. We will always keep a warm place in our hearts for both of you as we journey to take our role in shaping the future.

Power and Love,

Class of 2001

Dawn of The New Millennium

Diligence and Tenacity

The Class of 2001 begins an adventurous journey into the 21st Century with hopes and plans to strive toward goals that will reshape the educational environment of Malcolm X Shabazz. We are the first class to graduate under the Project Graduation Banner and give great thanks for the many wonderful opportunities that have been afforded to us, especially the scholarship program.

We, the Class of 2001, would also encourage the underclassmen to work hard and take advantage of the other marvelous changes that appear on the horizon via the School Management Team and Whole School Reform. Many changes are being made in how education is viewed and its role in creating a well-rounded student prepared for college or employment. We are grateful for a full medical clinic in our school, and as we look across the street there is a state-of-the-art stadium being constructed for the students at Malcolm X Shabazz High School. It is not a mirage.

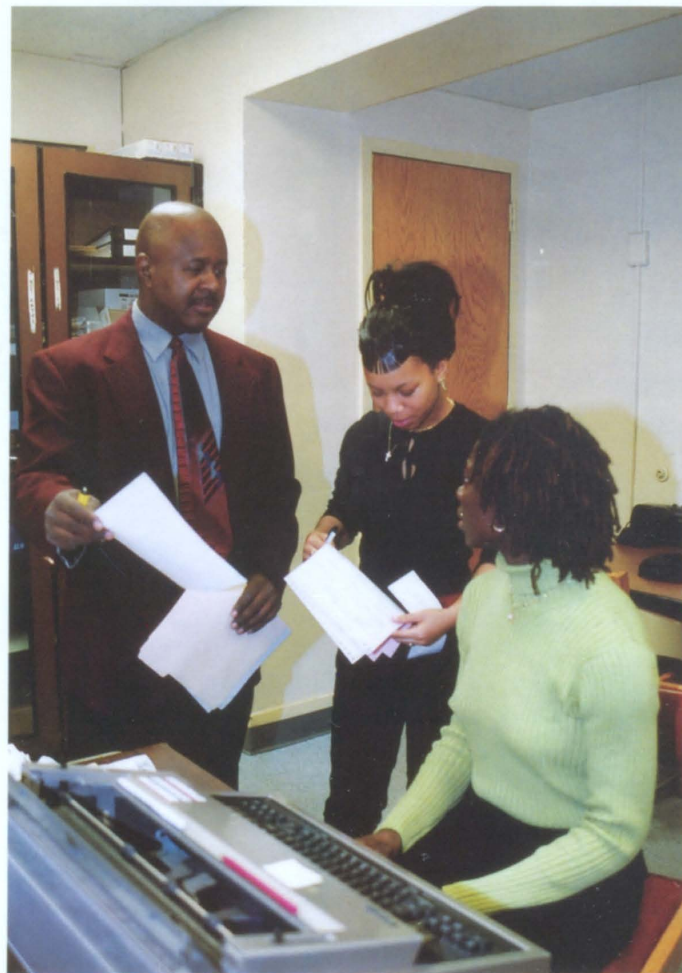

Mr. Paschall and Mr. Farrakhan go over the Whole School Reform.

Dr. Eastmon explains the new medical services program.

Mr. Bulger shares a laugh with some students.

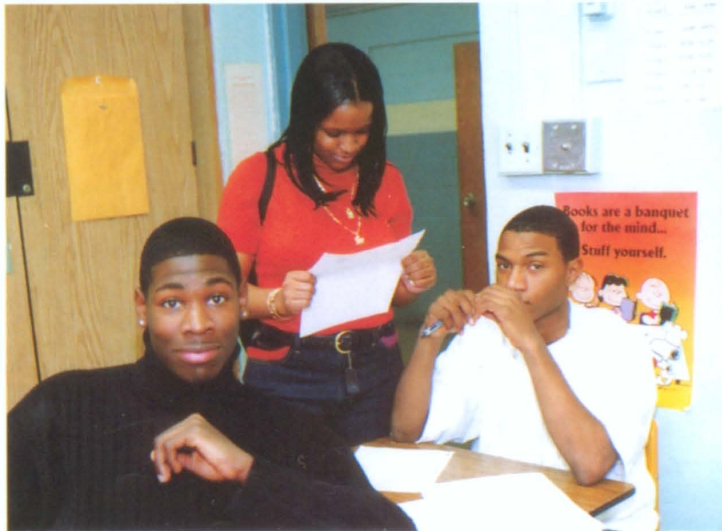

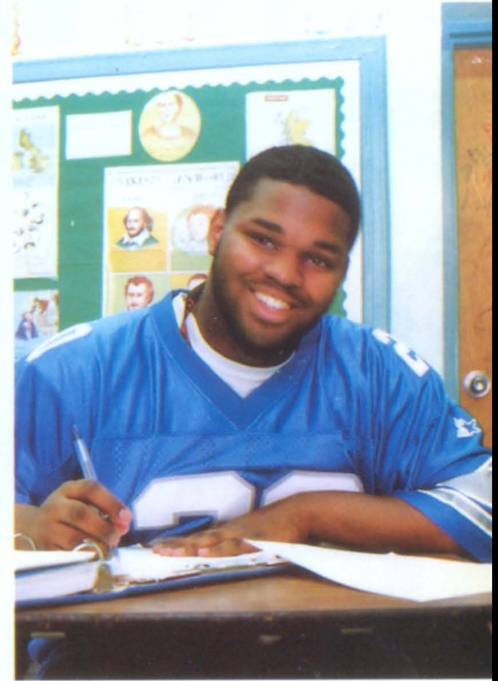

The class of 2001 invites you to venture with us as we travel back in time through our senior year at Malcolm X Shabazz High School. We have experienced a year filled with challenges as well as victories, cheering crowds and sad good-byes. Although our time spent in the Home of the Bulldogs is ending, let us all understand that every ending also marks a new beginning. Each page that we turn in this book reminds us of the times that we have shared with both family, friends, teachers and administrators. Now we can look to the future with these memories to sustain us, and with the confidence in our successes yet to come.

We, the Class of 2001, have demonstrated great diligence and tenacity and shown that personal determination can overcome all obstacles. We are Bulldogs Forever.

Mr. Green reports on the honor roll students.

STAFF

WE CARE

Each academic year the faculty and staff face unique challenges in their efforts to provide the finest educational opportunities for their students.

Combining professionalism, talent, and dedication the teachers engage their students in activities that are designed to foster learning and to embrace success.

To excell in the 21st century students need to develop a mature vision for themselves. The ultimate goal of the teachers at Malcolm X Shabazz is to assist students in shaping and refining those visions so that after graduation they will continue to work toward their goals.

Principal's Message

I commend the class of 2001 for your diligence and hard work. The recognition that hard work and dedication to the task has been your key to success. The further development of your talents and capabilities has been the primary objectives of the Shabazz administration, faculty, and staff. Always remember that the development of these assets is a continuous process throughout one's life.

As you leave the cloistered walls of Malcolm X Shabazz to go into society to fulfill your destiny, you do so at perhaps the most promising time in history. Take advantage of the multitude of opportunities that are present in this age of technology. Be a part of the flourishing, ever-changing culture that will be offered to those who are best prepared. Continue to educate yourselves so that you are equipped to take on the great challenges.

I remind each of you that there must arise from within this graduating class the movers and shakers of this great nation. You must become dynamic leaders of tomorrow who are dedicated to the tasks of not merely self-preservation and progression, but also of human uplift. I challenge each of you to be a part of that leadership.

WHAT CAN WE SAY, WE HAVE PRAYED SO LONG AND HARD FOR THIS TIME IN YOUR LIFE.

WE HAVE SHARED THE GOOD TIMES AND THE BAD. WE HAVE LAUGHED TOGETHER AND CRIED TOGETHER, BUT THROUGH IT ALL WE HAVE ALWAYS LOVED EACH OTHER. WE BELIEVED IN YOU WHEN YOU DIDN'T BELIEVE IN YOURSELF BECAUSE WE HAVE ALWAYS KNOWN THAT YOU WOULD GET TO THIS WONDERFUL TIME IN YOUR LIFE.

WE ARE PROUD OF YOU BEYOND WORDS. YOU HAVE GROWN INTO A VERY INTELLIGENT YOUNG MAN AND WE WANT YOU TO ALWAYS KNOW THAT YOU CAN BE ANYTHING YOU WANT TO BE AS LONG AS YOU BELIEVE AND TRUST IN GOD.

WE LOVED YOU FROM THE BEGINNING AND WE WILL LOVE YOU TO THE END.

WE LOVE YOU ALWAYS

Shakia,

We have watched you grow from a chubby cheeked toddler to the sweet & kind young lady you are today ...

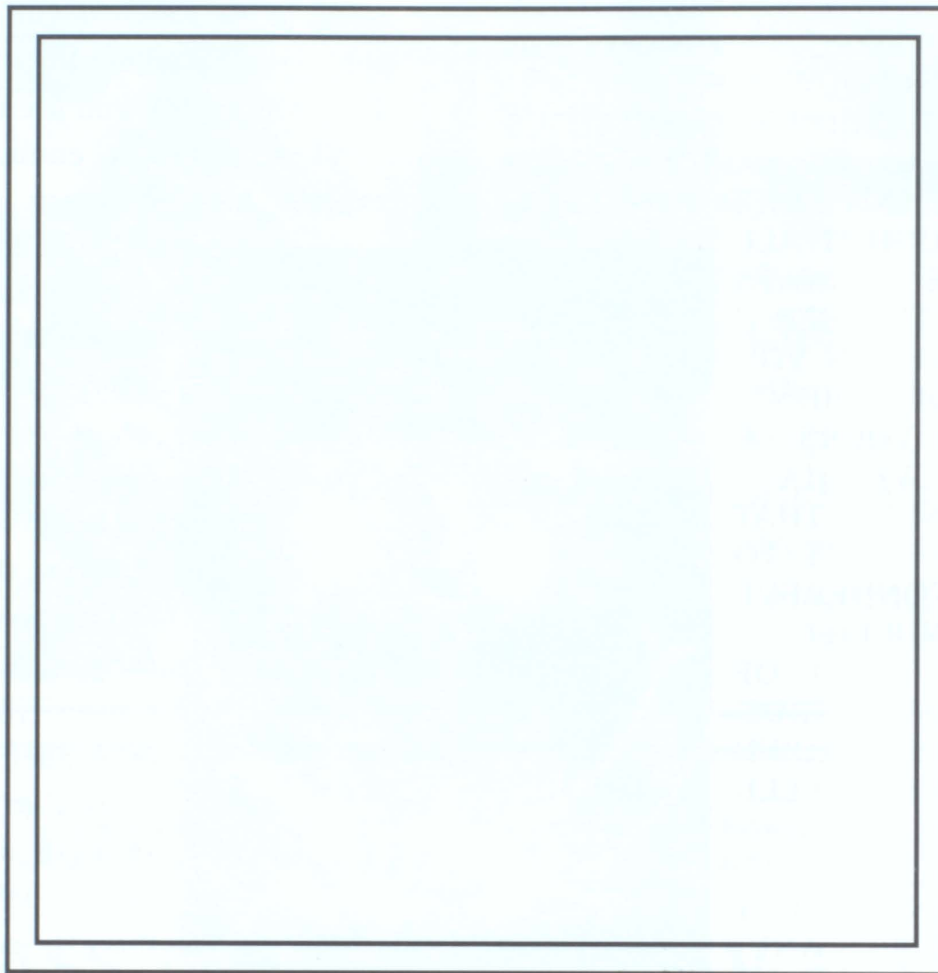

There are not enough words to express how proud we are of what you've accomplished ...

Life will no doubt deliver a few obstacles along your path, and where most would succumb to these defeats, we know with your wisdom and determination, failure is not an option for you. So as you continue your journey remember ...

You've got the strength of a thousand armies behind you and there's no door you can't open!!!
